Badges Types and How to Earn Them

- There are four kinds of badges: Challenge badges, Logging Badges, Activity Badges, and Review Badges.

- Challenge Badges: These badges are earned by signing up for and completing a challenge. These are automatically awarded to you!

- Logging Badges: These are badges which are earned by logging TIME reading. This program is based on time spent reading. (Not pages or number of books completed.)
  - You will automatically be awarded these badges as you log your minutes.

- Activity Badges: These are badges which are earned by completing some or all of the activities listed. In this reading program, these badges challenge readers to come visit the library and participate in our programming.
  - To earn these badges you must select the badge and then check the box saying you completed the activity.
  - You may be prompted to answer a question about the activity you attended. Answer this question to get your badge.

- Review Badges: These are badges earned by writing reviews of books on the website.
  - There is no requirement for length of review
  - You will automatically be awarded these badges after you leave a review.

Finishing the Program

- To finish the program, and be awarded the badge for completing, you must log 10 hours of reading.
- If you complete the program you will have earned two book prizes.

Prizes

- Badges may come with no reward, a raffle ticket, or prize reward.
  - In the corner of unearned badges you will see a small trophy image if earning the badge earns you a prize
